A man with short brown hair, wearing a blue and white checkered button-down shirt, is leaning over a dark, textured outdoor dining table. He is holding a wooden cutting board with a small white bowl of green guacamole and a large piece of grilled meat topped with guacamole. In the background, a large stainless steel grill is visible, with various items cooking on it. The table is set with several plates of food, including a burger with cheese and tomatoes, and a glass pitcher of water with lemon slices. The scene is outdoors with lush green foliage in the background.
